

Ms. Dana Boggs

Educational Service Professional of the Year

Dana Boggs is an outstanding educational service professional whose dedication to students and staff has made a lasting impact throughout her career. Having worked at Jeffrey Clark since 2005, Ms. Boggs has built strong, meaningful relationships with students and colleagues alike. Her ability to connect with students—across all grade levels and settings—is a testament to her warmth, compassion, and commitment to their success. Whether she is working with preschool students or providing support in general education classrooms, Ms. Boggs's presence is felt by all, as she consistently goes above and beyond her duties.

Ms. Boggs is recognized for her deep commitment to supporting the diverse needs of all learners. She takes the time to understand each student's individual needs and adapts her approach to ensure they feel cared for and supported. Whether it's offering a quiet space for a student who needs a break, helping with self-regulation strategies, or assisting students struggling to grasp academic concepts, Ms. Boggs is always ready to step in and help. Her ability to implement differentiated techniques allows students to progress at their own pace with confidence. Her impact is also evident in the personal connections she makes with students, as demonstrated by a moving email from a former student who credited Ms. Boggs with helping him walk into his new middle school with confidence.

In addition to her work with students, Ms. Boggs is a highly valued member of the school community. She builds strong, trusting relationships with her colleagues, collaborating effectively to meet the needs of all students. Ms. Boggs's proactive approach to supporting students goes beyond those assigned to her through IEPs—she is committed to helping every student in the classroom, regardless of their specific needs. Her willingness to assist all learners is a vital asset in an inclusive classroom setting. Ms. Boggs's thoughtful, consistent support ensures that no student is overlooked, and she is always ready to lend a hand wherever needed.

Ms. Boggs's contributions also extend beyond the classroom. She plays an active role in the school community, including her participation in the "Make Every Child Smile" committee, where she helps create a positive and supportive school environment for all students.

With her unwavering dedication, exceptional ability to connect with students, and collaborative spirit, Dana Boggs is more than deserving of the Educational Services Professional of the Year Award. Her impact on students' lives and her commitment to the success of all learners make her an invaluable asset to the district.
